

Repenning Fine Arts'

Specialty Classes

A listing of workshops and classes offered this Fall 2009 in addition to our regular ongoing classes

Figure Drawing and Painting

10 weeks starting September 21st -November 23rd

Adults and students 16 & up Mon. evenings 7:00-9:30 p.m.

Students will learn the fundamentals of figure drawing and painting, first by constructing the figure using charcoal, and then with oil paints. This workshop is designed to help students gain understanding in the field of figurative work, with emphasis on gesture, proportion, perspective, observation, tonal value, and anatomy.

Instructor: Kendra DeSimon P.A.F.A.

Tuition: $325. Includes model fees

Portrait Painting with Natalie Italiano

10 weeks starting Sept. 19th to Dec 19th

Adults and students 16 and up

Saturday mornings 9-noon

(class will not be held every second sat. of each month nor the sat. after Thanksgiving)

Students paint from the portrait model, based on a classical approach: Starting with a monochromatic “grisaille,” the gesture of the head is blocked in by relating angles, planes and shapes, from simple to complex. Through instructor demonstrations and critiques, students progress from the grisaille, to the “duo-tone” value study, and finally to the full color study.

Tuition: $325. Includes model fees

Natalie Italiano is an instructor in the core program at Studio Incamminati in Philadelphia and has studied and taught under Nelson Shanks for the last six years. She also attended the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts. Her portraits have appeared in numerous group exhibitions and hang in many private collections. Her work can be seen at www.natalieitaliano.com.